

Curriculum Vitae Prof. Dr. Uwe Frank

Prof. Dr. Uwe Frank

Head of Hospital Hygiene at Heidelberg University Hospital, Centre for Infectiology, Medical Microbiology and Hygiene, Division of Hospital and Environmental Hygiene, Heidelberg University Hospital, Germany; Institute of Environmental Medicine and Hospital Hygiene, University Medical Centre Freiburg, Germany

- | | |
|-----------------|---|
| Since 2012 | Senior Hospital Hygienist, Heidelberg University Hospital |
| Since 1993 | Senior Physician, Institute of Environmental Medicine and Hospital Hygiene, University Medical Centre Freiburg; Senior Physician, Specialist for Microbiology and Infection Epidemiology, Leader of the work group "Drug development based on natural products" |
| 2007 until 2012 | Co-ordinator of European projects: Burden of Resistance and Disease in European Nations (BURDEN) and Implementing Strategic Bundles for Infection Prevention and Management (IMPLEMENT) |
| 2006 until 2007 | Provisional Director, Institute of Environmental Medicine and Hospital Hygiene, University Medical Centre Freiburg |
| 1993 until 1998 | Senior Physician, Institute of Environmental Medicine and Hospital Hygiene, University Medical Centre Freiburg; Senior Physician, Specialist for Microbiology and Infection Epidemiology |

- 1992 Fellow, Division of Infectious Diseases, The Medical Service, San Francisco General Hospital, University of California, San Francisco, USA
- 1991 Fellow, Division of Infectious Diseases, Clinical Microbiology Laboratories, San Francisco General Hospital, University of California, San Francisco, USA
- 1986 until 1990 Scientific Assistant, Clinic Hygiene, University Medical Centre Freiburg

Habilitation (post-doctoral university degree with lecture qualification):

“Clinical microbiology”

Recognition as “Infectiologist” (German Society for Infectious Diseases, DGI) at the University Medical Centre Freiburg

