

SOP strategy against infections:

From admission to discharge a patient undergoes many care measures that involve the risk of infection. Standardised operating procedures (SOP ✓), that consider all these critical moments can provide better patient protection here.

54 million inpatient surgeries and medical procedures per year in Germany

Research for infection protection

Figures from the German market

Sources: German National Reference Centre (NRZ), Commission for Hospital Hygiene and Infectious Disease Prevention (KRINKO), German Federal Ministry for Education and Research (BMBF), Federal Statistical Office